ABOUT DEEN CITY FARM

Deen City Farm is an urban farm with an educational focus in the heart of the London Borough of Merton. We teach the local community about the rural environment and where their food comes from. We have an active Volunteering programme as well as a Riding School offering affordable lessons to the local community. We are a registered charity, supported by Merton Council, and rely upon donations from visitors and the local community to help us carry out our work.

DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

- Carrying out routine maintenance around the site, including but not limited to: fence repairs and installation, general repairs, painting and decorating.
- Building projects in conjunction with the Caretaker.
- General housekeeping to ensure systems run effectively, such as clearing blockages, cleaning guttering etc.
- Other tasks depending on skills and experience.
- To answer any questions visitors might have about the Farm & Riding School and to direct enquiries to an appropriate member of staff if necessary.

PERSONAL SPECIFICATION

- Relevant practical experience of DIY and site maintenance.
- Experience of Health and Safety, including risk assessment and maintenance management.
- Trustworthy and reliable
- Have a good degree of fitness and happy to work outdoors
- Aged 18 years and above.
- Have an interest in community, animals, farming, or wildlife.
- Ability to communicate with all visitors in a clear and friendly manner.
